NOTICE OF EXECUTION AFTER JUDGMENT

(Per NRS 21.075)

READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY

It provides information on how the law may allow you to protect your property or money from being attached to pay the judgment against you.

YOUR PROPERTY IS BEING ATTACHED OR YOUR WAGES ARE BEING GARNISHED

A court has determined that you owe money to the person or company (the "judgment creditor") listed on the Writ of Execution included with this Notice of Execution. The judgment creditor has begun the procedure to collect that money by garnishing your wages, bank account and other personal property held by third persons or by taking money or other property in your possession.

Certain benefits and property owned by you may be exempt from execution and may not be taken from you. The following is a partial list of exemptions:

1. Payments received pursuant to the federal Social Security Act, including, without limitation, retirement and survivors' benefits, supplemental security income benefits and disability insurance benefits.
2. Payments for benefits or the return of contributions under the Public Employees' Retirement System.
3. Payments for public assistance granted through the Division of Welfare and Supportive Services of the Department of Health and Human Services or a local governmental entity.
4. Proceeds from a policy of life insurance.
5. Payments of benefits under a program of industrial insurance.
6. Payments received as disability, illness or unemployment benefits.
7. Payments received as unemployment compensation.
8. Veteran's benefits.
9. A homestead in a dwelling or a mobile home, not to exceed $605,000 unless:
 - (a) The judgment is for a medical bill, in which case all of the primary dwelling, including a mobile or manufactured home, may be exempt.
 - (b) Allodial title has been established and not relinquished for the dwelling or mobile home, in which case all of the dwelling or mobile home and its appurtenances are exempt, including the land on which they are located, unless a valid waiver executed pursuant to NRS 115.010 is applicable to the judgment.
10. All money reasonably deposited with a landlord by you to secure an agreement to rent or lease a dwelling that is used by you as your primary residence, except that such money is not exempt with respect to a landlord or landlord's successor in interest who seeks to enforce the terms of the agreement to rent or lease the dwelling.
11. A vehicle, if your equity in the vehicle is less than $15,000.
12. At least eighty-two percent of the take-home pay for any workweek if your gross weekly salary or wage was $770 or less on the date the most recent writ of garnishment was issued; or seventy-five percent of the take-home pay for any workweek if your gross weekly salary or wage exceeded $770 on the date the most recent writ of garnishment was issued; or if the weekly take-home pay is less than 50 times the federal minimum hourly wage, the entire amount may be exempt.
13. Money, not to exceed $1,000,000 in present value, held in:
 - (a) An individual retirement arrangement which conforms with or is maintained pursuant to the applicable limitations and requirements of section 408 or 408A of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. §§ 408 and 408A, including, without limitation, an inherited individual retirement arrangement;

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES in this matter may be obtained from the Civil Law Self-Help Center, which is located at the Regional Justice Center in downtown Las Vegas, or on its website, www.civillawselfhelpcenter.org.

(c) A cash or deferred arrangement plan which is qualified and maintained pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, including, without limitation, an inherited cash or deferred arrangement plan;

(d) A trust forming part of a stock bonus, pension or profit-sharing plan which is qualified and maintained pursuant to sections 401 et seq. of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. §§ 401 et seq.; and

(e) A trust forming part of a qualified tuition program pursuant to chapter 353B of NRS, any applicable regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 353B of NRS and section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 259, unless the money is deposited after the entry of a judgment against the purchaser or account owner or the money will not be used by any beneficiary to attend a college or university.

14. All money and other benefits paid pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction for the support, education and maintenance of a child, whether collected by the judgment debtor or the State.

15. All money and other benefits paid pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction for the support and maintenance of a former spouse, including the amount of any arrearages in the payment of such support and maintenance to which the former spouse may be entitled.

19. A prosthesis or any equipment prescribed by a physician or dentist for you or your dependent.

PROCEDURE FOR CLAIMING EXEMPT PROPERTY

If you believe that the money or property taken from you is exempt, you must complete and file with the clerk of the court an executed claim of exemption. A copy of the claim of exemption must be served upon the sheriff, the garnishee and the judgment creditor within 10 days after the notice of execution or garnishment is served on you by mail pursuant to NRS 21.076 which identifies the specific property that is being levied on. The property must be released by the garnishee or the sheriff within 9 judicial days after you serve the claim of exemption upon the sheriff, garnishee and judgment creditor, unless the sheriff or garnishee receives a copy of an objection to the claim of exemption and a notice for a hearing to determine the issue of exemption. If this happens, a hearing will be held to determine whether the property or money is exempt.

The objection to the claim of exemption and notice for the hearing to determine the issue of exemption must be filed by the judgment creditor within 8 judicial days after the claim of exemption is served on the judgment creditor by mail or in person and served on the judgment debtor, the sheriff and any garnishee not less than 5 judicial days before the date set for the hearing. The hearing to determine whether the property or money is exempt must be held within 7 judicial days after the objection to the claim of exemption and notice for the hearing is filed.

You may be able to have your property released more quickly if you mail to the judgment creditor or the attorney of the judgment creditor written proof that the property is exempt. Such proof may include, without limitation, a letter from the government, an annual statement from a pension fund, receipts for payments, copies of checks, records from financial institutions or any other document which demonstrates that the money in your account is exempt.

IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE EXECUTED CLAIM OF EXEMPTION WITHIN THE TIME SPECIFIED, YOUR PROPERTY MAY BE SOLD
AND THE MONEY GIVEN TO THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR, EVEN IF THE PROPERTY OR MONEY IS EXEMPT.

CHECKLIST FOR FILING A "CLAIM OF EXEMPTION"

- 1. Read the list of exemptions in this notice to determine whether any of your property or money is exempt from execution (in other words, protected from being taken to pay the judgment against you).
- 2. Obtain a "Claim of Exemption" form from the clerk at the court where the judgment against you was issued or from the Civil Law Self-Help Center, which is located at the Regional Justice Center in downtown Las Vegas, or on its website, www.civillawselfhelpcenter.org.
- 3. Fill out the Claim of Exemption form. If you have documentation that proves the exemptions you are claiming, attach the documentation to the Claim of Exemption form (but be sure to black out any personal information, such as Social Security numbers, bank account numbers, etc.).
- 4. Take the completed Claim of Exemption form to the court where the judgment against you was issued, and file the Claim of Exemption with the court clerk.

NOTE: You must file your Claim of Exemption with the court within ten days after the Sheriff or Constable serves the Writ of Execution or Writ of Garnishment on you by mail, identifying the specific property that is subject to execution or garnishment, or within ten days after your wages are withheld if you are being garnished.

- 5. After your Claim of Exemption has been filed with the court, mail a copy of your file-stamped Claim of Exemption to the following three parties:
 - The Constable or Sheriff who mailed you the Writ of Execution or served your bank or employer;
 - The judgment creditor's attorney (or the judgment creditor directly if no attorney is involved);
 - Any garnishee (likely your employer, if your wages are being garnished; your bank, if your bank account has been attached; or some other third-party, if money or assets in the third-party's possession have been executed against).
- 6. Watch your mail. After receiving your Claim of Exemption, the judgment creditor has eight days to file an objection. If an objection is filed, a hearing will be set. You will receive a copy of the objection and a notice of the hearing in the mail.
- 7. Attend the court hearing if one is set. Before the hearing, collect whatever documentation you need to show that you are entitled to the exemptions you have claimed. Take your documentation to the hearing, along with a proposed order for the judge to sign. (You can obtain a form order from the clerk of the court or on the Civil Law Self-Help Center's website, www.civillawselfhelpcenter.org.) At the hearing, it will be your responsibility to prove to the judge that your claimed exemptions are appropriate.

Man shot after argument over towing in North Las Vegas

Jason Harris (North Las Vegas Police Department)

LAS VEGAS (KLAS) — A man was arrested and charged with attempted murder after a shooting Thursday night following an argument over a vehicle that had been impounded, police said.

North Las Vegas police arrested Jason Harris, 28, at his home. Harris is an employee at Fast Towing, located in the 4200 block of Donovan Way in North Las Vegas.

The victim was shot in the head, and was taken to University Medical Center where he remains in critical condition, police said.

The 28-year-old man who was shot went to the towing yard in the 4200 block of Donovan Way with his father on Thursday night. A physical altercation took place after a disagreement over towing prices, police said. The father was driving away with his son in the passenger seat when the shot was fired.

Harris initially told officers he fired a shot after he saw an occupant of the vehicle point a silver revolver at him. But he later said he was so angry over the fight that he shot at the vehicle.

The towing yard is near where East Craig Road crosses Interstate 15.
